- This workbook was designed to help everyone, not just those experiencing parenting problems. What are your feelings about this program? This program is awesome because I not only received multi perspective on life situations as a parent, but it also gave me a chance to re-evaluate my views and positions on the way I parent. And me being a father of four I could use all the help I can get - thank you -
 - Were there any parts in the workbook that helped you personally? yes If yes, how? The subcontinuous and continuous format help me see that my kids watch and remember at a young age
 - Did the workbook in any part relate to your student's life? Yes How? It helped him to understand that his planning has to revolve around his kids and spouse, to encourage him to produce a better way of life for his family.
